

JOHNS HOPKINS RECOGNIZES LIGHT OF HEALING HOPE FOUNDATION

Light of Healing Hope Foundation Donates Packages to Patients

The Light of Healing Hope Foundation recently donated more than 600 gift packages for patients and families staying at the Hackerman-Patz Patient and Family Pavilion...

Sarah Hoehlein, Director of Residential Living at the Hackerman-Patz Pavilion, noticed the impact of the donation: “The Healing Light poetry book shares inspirational words and beautiful illustrations, allowing a moment of respite and reflection in what can otherwise be a very busy day for patients and their caregivers. The journal is a helpful way for patients to capture the experiences and feelings of the day or even write a note to a family member or friend back home.”

In addition to residents at the Pavilion, the gift packages have been included in “appreciation packages” for individuals who are bone marrow donors...

CLICK HERE TO READ THE FULL JOHNS HOPKINS NEWS STORY

Sarah Hoehlein, Director of Residential Living at the Hackerman-Patz Pavilion, with the Light of Healing Hope Foundation gift packages at the front desk.

Gift packages delivered to Wounded Soldiers

We are pleased to let you know the Light of Healing Hope Foundation has delivered several hundred gift packages to wounded Service members and their families at the Walter Reed National Military Medical Center over the past few months in our ongoing effort to bring comfort to those who are suffering.

Walter Reed National Military Medical Center, Bethesda, MD

200 gift packages donated to the Hospice of Palm Beach County

In loving memory of Elise Hamilton, Anita and Sam Michaels have made a generous donation to the Light of Healing Hope Foundation for 200 gift packages to be given to the Hospice of Palm Beach County.

The Michaels, previous supporters of the Foundation, have made this contribution for the gift packages in which a note card will be included commemorating Anita Michaels' daughter, Elise. This contribution is very meaningful to the foundation in continuing our work to bring solace and healing where it is needed.

Healing Light provides comfort at Joseph's House Hospice

"I placed Healing Light on the coffee table of our living room... the next thing I knew I saw it on John's bedside table. He has seen nearly everything in his life, but not much beauty.

From all of us at Joseph's House, thank you for the gift of your inspiring, incredibly beautiful, Healing Light."
~Patricia Wudel, Executive Director

Hickman Cancer Center in Sylvania, Ohio requests gift packages

Hickman Cancer Center at Flower Hospital in Sylvania, OH

A Johns Hopkins patient receiving follow-up treatment at the Hickman Cancer Center, recommended our gift packages and inspired the staff at the Center to place a first order for their own patients.

*"Thank you for the gift packages — they are beautiful!
...they offer comfort and support to patients and families.
We have a large outpatient facility... Thank you for sharing these gift packages with us — they are amazing!"*
~Deb Reis, RN, MSN, Coordinator,
Healing Care Program, Hickman Cancer Center

