

In our ongoing effort to comfort those in need in the military, we have received many heartwarming comments from the Fisher House Foundation and Service Members' families.

"...your very thoughtful, insightful books are providing solace and healing as families face heart rending challenges." ~ Mary Jo Myers,
Trustee, Fisher House Foundation

"My family and I would like to thank you for the wonderful book, "Healing Light." It will be read many times over, as we all deal with the loss of a wonderful, brave young man, son, and brother, Sgt. Chad I. Vallmer. (12.23.06) God Bless you from a Solider's Family."

~Ms Sandra Vallmer, Mr. Terry Vallmer, Ben & Heather DeHaan

"We received so many wonderful thank you's for the beautiful book. It has helped families going through difficult times as their loved ones go through recovery. It was very unique and heartfelt, that really left an impact on [their] hearts. Thank you again."

~Rebecca Skinner, Assistant Manager, BAMC Fisher Houses

"The so very thoughtful book of inspriation could not have come at a better time. I've been having a particularly difficult time dealing with the death of our wonderful 19 year old son... We continue to function but our grief does not diminish and it was so comforting to receive the book... With heartfelt thanks."

~Meredith E. Braun, Stafford Springs, CT

"We can't tell you how much we appreciate the books. They were a true blessing to our Fisher House families... Each and every family was overjoyed and so very appreciative.

Each family stated, 'It was just what I needed.' "

~A'Gatha September Palmer, Fisher House Assistant Manager, Charlie Norwood VA Medical Center
