LHHF Marks Breast Cancer Awareness Month

We visited Johns Hopkins Sidney Kimmel Cancer Center at Sibley Memorial Hospital to deliver some of our gift packages and met Jessica White, a 27 year old patient, who has been battling stage 4 breast cancer since 2010. She received our LHHF gift package 2 years ago and was very happy to be given our new package with Beloved Spirit and the Light of Healing Hope: Peaceful Meditations DVD and CD. Here she is with her nurse, Patricia DiZebba.

"The poems of Beloved Spirit offer me a sense of peace. The words are soothing to my spirit and take me to a place of serenity helping me forget my worries"
~ Jessica White

International outreach: Spreading comfort to wounded soldiers abroad

The Light of Healing Hope Foundation, has now sent 150 gift packages to the Wounded Warrior Project for their Combat Stress Recovery Program (CSRP) and to their office in Landstuhl, Germany to be distributed at the hospital receiving wounded veterans from Afghanistan.

WOUNDED WARRIOR PROJECT

"I can state first hand the importance of spiritual health in the healing process so my sincere thanks go out to you for your work in this area."
~Bruce Nitsche, Executive Vice President, Special Project and Board Liaison, Wounded Warrior Project

"We received so many wonderful thank you's for the beautiful book. It has helped families going through difficult times as their loved ones go through recovery. It was very unique and heartfelt, that really left an impact on [their] hearts. Thank you again."

~Rebecca Skinner,
Assistant Manager, BAMC Fisher Houses
