PROVIDING COMFORT TO MANY IN NEED

VALENTINE'S REQUEST FROM NIH

The Palliative Care center at NIH asked for additional books in time for Valentine's Day. We are thrilled to offer spiritual support as people struggle with end of life issues.

"Thank you so much for the Healing Courage books. We gave them to the families who are affected by cystic fibrosis and they loved them.

"The books are motivational and allow me to find comfort through difficult times."

"Our therapists teach meditation to our clients and the HEALING COURAGE book and accompanying DVD empower our clients to implement this powerful healing practice into their lives. Having a sense of hope and inspiration is integral to forming a new reality after the loss of a loved one."

Chanda Fuller, Executive Director

HONORING THOSE WHO SERVE

LHHF has begun gift deliveries to patients and their families at: Fort Bragg ~ Fort Campbell ~ Walter Reed

We participated in a special day of giving to distribute our Healing Courage and To Catch a Thought gifts to bring comfort to members of the Walter Reed community of military staff, volunteers, care givers, patients and their families.

SENDING COMFORT TO MOTHERS

LHHF gifts were also sent to the American Gold Star Mothers; an organization of mothers who have lost a son or daughter in the service of our country. They honor our veterans and remember those who died serving their country.
